

How can we open our hearts to the gifts of the Spirit?

How can we prepare ourselves to receive?

How can we deepen our faith which assures us that we will receive?

How can we find deeper meaning in sacred texts?

These are some of the questions which any of us might ask as we move through our busy lives distracted by our busyness, our cares, our responsibilities and our pleasures and yet also aware that we are being called to a spiritual awakening.

The practice of Lectio Divina offers us a unique opportunity to listen; listen to each other, listen to the still small voice within.

Lawrence Hyschuk will be leading a 4 week Lenten journey through the practice of Lectio Divina beginning at the end of February. A schedule is yet to be determined.

Please speak to Lawrence Hyschuk in person or by telephone to learn more - (416) 767-2825.

These are some of the questions which any of us might ask as we move through our busy lives distracted by our busyness, our cares, our responsibilities and our pleasures and yet also aware that we are being called to a spiritual awakening.

The practice of Lectio Divina offers us a unique opportunity to listen; listen to each other, listen to the still small voice within.

Lawrence Hyschuk will be leading a 4 week Lenten journey through the practice of Lectio Divina beginning at the end of February. A schedule is yet to be determined.

Please speak to Lawrence Hyschuk in person or by telephone to learn more - (416) 767-2825.